RE: 2017 U.M.A.A.S. MEMBERSHIP

Upon a review of our current membership registry it is noted you have not yet paid your 2015 membership.

As Executive Director I wish to remind you of the requirements of Section 18(1) of the U.M.A. Act which states,

"No person other than a person whose name appears in the register shall serve or hold himself out as qualified to serve as an administrator."

Should your name be struck off the register there is, under Bylaw No. 1-00, a $25.00 fee for reinstatement. Also, membership is a prerequisite of registration and attendance at our annual Convention.

In view of the above I would recommend payment of your annual membership fee prior to our June Convention. Any memberships not paid by that time will be struck from the register and subject to the reinstatement fee. The Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Saskatchewan Urban Municipalities Association will also be advised of administrators in communities of 100 population or over who have not complied with Section 18 of the U.M.A. Act.

I trust this matter warrants your immediate attention.

Yours truly,

URBAN MUNICIPAL ADMINISTRATORS
ASSOCIATION OF SASKATCHEWAN

Executive Director

B. COMPLAINTS

GENERAL PROVISIONS

When a written complaint is filed with the Executive Director of the Urban Municipal Administrators' Association of Saskatchewan on account of any act or omission carried out by a registered member of UMAAS, the Executive Director shall examine the nature of the complaint and direct the complainant in accordance with the complaint procedures herein. Any matters of concern shall be forwarded by the Executive Director to the UMAAS Disciplinary Committee for review.

Matters shall only be considered by the Disciplinary Committee if the complainant is able to clearly demonstrate a breach of a bylaw adopted by UMAAS, which may include a breach of its Code of Ethics, or a breach of the Criminal Code of Canada. The burden of proof rests with the complainant and there is a presumption of innocence until sufficient proof, at the discretion of the Disciplinary Committee, has been provided.

COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

The complaint procedures shall be as follows:

- 1) The Executive Director shall consider whether the matter is a breach of a bylaw adopted by UMAAS by a registered member and advise the complainant in writing if the complaint is unrelated.
 - a. All other complaints, with the exception of a breach of the Criminal Code of Canada, shall be considered outside the scope of the UMAAS Disciplinary Committee and may be filed with the Council of the municipality, Ombudsman Saskatchewan, and/or law enforcement depending on the nature of the concern.
 - b. The complainant should contact Municipal Advisory Services to clarify any pertinent legislation and interpretation thereof.
- 2) If the matter is an alleged breach of a bylaw adopted by UMAAS and is not related to a breach of the Criminal Code of Canada, the complainant shall first submit their complaint in writing to the municipality employing the accused. The Council or its administration, depending on the nature of the complaint and the policies of the municipality, shall review the matter in the context of an alleged breach of the municipality's code of ethics, policies, bylaws, or any applicable provincial or federal legislation.
 - a. If the alleged breach should be of concern to the municipality based on the bylaws or policies it has adopted or any relevant laws enacted by a higher level of government and there is sufficient proof that the breach occurred, it is the expectation of UMAAS that the municipality will take appropriate measures to address the matter.
 - b. In the event that the complainant is unsatisfied with the action taken by a municipality in response to said complaint, the complainant may submit the matter to the Disciplinary Committee for the additional review. In order for the matter to receive further attention from UMAAS the following documentation must be included:
 - i. A follow-up letter from the municipality, detailing the actions taken; or
 - ii. A letter from the complainant requesting a follow-up letter from the municipality at least thirty (30) days prior; and
 - iii. A reference to the section of the UMAAS bylaw alleged to have been breached.
 - c. At the discretion of the Disciplinary Committee, additional measures may be taken and the complainant will be notified in writing of any decision reached. A member of the Disciplinary Committee may contact the municipality for additional information. If a breach of a UMAAS bylaw is deemed to have occurred, the following shall serve as a non-binding guideline for the issuance of any additional discipline that may be required, if any:
 - i. On first offense, a written warning, opinion, or clarification may be issued;
 - ii. On second offense, a recommendation to the Urban Board of Examiners for the issuance of a revocation of certificate may be made.
- 3) In the event charges are laid against a member based on an alleged breach of the Criminal Code of Canada, the matter should be brought directly to the attention of the Disciplinary Committee for review.
 - a. The Disciplinary Committee may issue a recommendation to the Urban Board of Examiners that the member's certificate be suspended pending the outcome of an investigation, if deemed appropriate.
 - b. The Disciplinary Committee may issue a recommendation to the Urban Board of Examiners that the member's certificate be revoked after a criminal code conviction.

MEMBER PROTECTION

Efforts shall be taken to maintain confidentiality throughout and after this process. It is our goal to protect the reputation of the local government and all participants involved to the greatest degree possible while upholding the standards of the profession.

Policy #	11(a)
Issue	Executive Director Job Description
Updated	February 6, 2009

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR JOB DESCRIPTION

GENERAL

The Executive Director shall be responsible for conducting the affairs of the Association in accordance with the policies, practices and bylaws of the Association and shall carry out the duties of the Secretary-Treasurer of the Association in accordance with the Urban Municipal Administrators Act. The position requires a good working knowledge of management principles and local government administration and demonstrated interpersonal, public relations and communication skills. Reporting to the Executive Board, the Executive Director shall have a full working knowledge of the Executive Board and its committees, their structures and functions. Essential to the job are motivational and organizational skills and the ability to work independently, complete assigned tasks and to plan, organize and supervise meetings, workshops and conventions.

The Executive Director shall possess and maintain a valid Saskatchewan Advanced Level I (Urban Class A) Certificate of Qualification issued by the Board of Examiners or better, for the term of this Agreement and shall be a member of the Association in good standing.

The Executive Director will strive to establish and maintain satisfactory relationships with the Executive Board, the members of the Association, the Saskatchewan Urban Municipalities Association, the Department of Municipal Affairs and Housing and other Federal and Provincial Departments and organizations dealing with the Executive Board. He shall bring to the attention of the Executive Board any matter or practices of concern or inconsistent with the Association practice or policies and must exercise good judgment in making decisions, referring where possible to established precedents.

DUTIES OF THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

A. NORMAL OPERATIONS

1. To take charge of and safely keep all books, documents and records of the Association committed to his charge and deliver them to his successor in office or any other person that the Executive Board may designate on his ceasing to hold office.
2. To summon all meetings of the Executive Board, communicate the resolutions and instructions of the Executive Board to the parties concerned and conduct the general office correspondence of the Executive Board.
3. To attend all meetings of the Executive Board and to truly record in the minutes all resolutions, decisions and other proceedings of the Executive Board. In the absence of the Executive Director, the Executive Board may designate an acting Secretary to attend and record the minutes of meetings and the Executive Board shall fix the remuneration of such acting Secretary.
4. To enter in the minutes the names of the Executive Board members present at meetings.
5. To have custody of the seal of the Association.
6. To collect and receive all moneys paid to the Association and issue receipts therefor.
7. To safely keep all funds and securities of the Association.
8. To deposit all moneys received in a bank or credit union designated by the Executive Board of the Association such deposits to be made when collections have accumulated to the amount of $500.00 or more frequently as the Executive Director may in his discretion decide upon but in any case not less than once a month.
9. To disburse the funds of the Association only to those persons and in the manner directed by the bylaws or resolutions of the Executive Board.

10. To make all payments on behalf of the Association by cheque on the bank or credit union in which the moneys of the Association are deposited, signed by the Executive Director and the President or, in his absence, the Vice-President of the Association.
11. To keep and make use of books to record and account for the purpose of maintaining a complete and accurate account of assets and liabilities and all transactions affecting the financial position of the Association.
12. To obtain and maintain a bond or policy of guarantee in a sum of no less than $10,000.00, the premiums for which are to be paid by the Association.
13. To submit to the Executive Board for approval at its meetings:
 - a list of accounts paid or payable
 - a financial statement for that part of the fiscal period ending on the last day of the calendar month previous to the meeting showing all receipts and payments to that date.
14. To arrange for an audit of the books and accounts of the association on an annual basis and to submit the audited financial statement to the Executive Board no later than 90 days after the fiscal year end.
15. To prepare an annual operating budget and submit it to the Executive Board for approval on or before January 15th in each year.
16. To forward to all administrators and clerks, in December of each year, a Membership Dues Notice for the following calendar year, such notice to set out the membership fee payable and the due date for payment thereof.
17. To forward to the Department of Consumer and Commercial Affairs and the Department of Municipal Affairs and Housing in January of each calendar year, the annual return and the list of current members of the Association in accordance with Section 41 of the Urban Municipal Administrators Act.
18. To maintain and regularly update separate registers of Regular and Associate members in good standing and to provide the Regional Directors of the Executive Board at least annually with a listing of the members in good standing in their Districts.
19. To supervise the compilation and circulation of a tri yearly Newsletter to all Municipalities and communicate other pertinent information to all Municipalities from time to time with the consent of the President or, in his absence, the Vice President of the Association.
20. In consultation with the President or the appropriate committee chairperson to meetings, including reserving suitable accommodations for members and suitable rooms for meetings, circulating material including agendas, copies of previous minutes, listings of accounts to be approved and copies of the financial statements, correspondence and reports to members at least ten (10) days in advance of the meeting, arranging for refreshments and lunches to be brought into the meeting room and ensuring that adequate materials and supplies are on hand for the use of the Executive Board.
21. To ensure that sufficient supplies and stationery are on hand and to make supplies and stationery available to the Executive Board in accordance with Board policies.
22. To arrange for and maintain telephone calling cards for the Executive Board and to arrange for conference calls when required by the Executive Board.
23. To communicate regularly with the President, or, in his absence, the Vice President of the Association.
24. To respond courteously and promptly to inquiries from members and prospective members and to ensure that responses are accurate with reference to established practices, bylaws or policies of the Association, referring inquiry where appropriate.
25. To promote membership in, and objectives of, the Association when the opportunity arises.

26. To perform such duties and carry out such instructions as may be lawfully required by the Executive Board of the Association.

B. ANNUAL CONVENTION

1. Arrange for hotel accommodations by reserving a block of approximately 100 rooms as soon as practicably can be arranged after the site of the convention is selected.
2. Reserve suitable rooms for the Executive Board at the earliest opportunity.
3. Prepare a budget for the convention for approval of the Executive Board on or before January 15th in each year.
4. Reserve conference and meeting rooms and other facilities for convention functions, including general session workshops and social events.
5. Consult with the Executive Board and the host municipality in preparing preliminary agenda, including items such as entertainment, meal prices, golf tournament, companions' program, guest speakers, administrative services, transportation and awards.
6. Solicit corporate donations and sponsorships including such items as registration kit materials and prizes.
7. Make arrangements for trade show exhibits.
8. Confirm the attendance of the convention speakers as well as workshop and seminar leaders.
9. Distribute preliminary agendas, pre-registration materials and any notices to the membership required by statute or bylaw to all administrators and clerks as far in advance of the convention as may be required by statute or bylaw, as the case may be and in no case less than forty-five days in advance of the convention.
10. Receive pre-registration materials and maintain a register of pre-registered convention delegates and guests.
11. In consultation with the host municipality and convention hotel staff, ensure that details such as arrangements for the annual Executive Board supper, wine and cheese social, bus services, photocopy services, sound services, liquor permits, companions' programs, dance band and luncheon and banquet menus are finalized well in advance of the convention date.
12. Have the final convention agenda printed after confirmation of all participants and events, which confirmation is to be completed on or before June 1st of each year.
13. Prepare registration kits, ensuring that sufficient supplies are available and arrange for individuals to assist with registration.
14. Oversee convention registration procedures, both pre-registrations and on-site convention registrations.
15. Receive and disburse convention funds in a like manner as other funds of the Association.
16. Arrive at the main convention hotel sufficiently early to ensure that all is in readiness.
17. Forward letters of thanks to contributors, speakers and workshop and seminar leaders on or before June 30th in the year of the convention.
18. Conduct necessary correspondence and carry out the procedures required to give effect to all resolutions passed at the annual convention.
19. A financial statement detailing the convention receipts and expenditures and comparing them to budgeted figures is to be prepared and submitted to the Executive Board at the first meeting after September 1st in the year of the convention.

C. PUBLICITY

1. To assist, as requested or required by the Executive, with the preparation of press releases and other relevant reports to be released by the President and/or Executive to various government agencies and/or news media.
2. To represent the Executive of the Association when delegated to do so.
3. To promote and maintain a liaison with Executive Directors of other similar organizations within the Province as well as those of neighboring provinces and senior officials of various provincial departments and related agencies.
