Meet Our Speakers

Cadmus Delorme

One Hoop

Cadmus, a Cree and Saulteaux, is the former Chief of Cowessess First Nation in Southern Saskatchewan. Cadmus graduated from Cowessess Community Education Centre in 2000. He later moved to Regina to pursue a Bachelor of Business Administration and a Certificate in Hospitality, Tourism and Gaming Entertainment Management from the First Nations University of Canada (FNUniv), and a Master of Public Administration from the Johnson Shoyama Graduate School of Public Policy. He has also received an ICD.D. designation from the Institute of Corporate Directors and its affiliate institution, Kenneth Levene Graduate School of Business.

Lorri Matthewson

Matthewson & Co.

Lorri is an entrepreneur based out of Carlyle, SK. She founded Matthewson & Co., a community economic development support system specifically for small population communities. In the past three years, Lorri grew her business from a single contract to more than 30 projects in three provinces. Attaining her MBA in Community Economic Development in 2019 and her certification in Asset Management in 2019, Lorri is working towards her PMP designation. A believer in lifelong education, she is considering doctorate work soon.

Todd Reimer

Boots on the Ground Coaching

Todd is the founder of Boots on the Ground Coaching and author of More Than a Hammer: Leadership Tools for the Trades - Part 1 & 2. He started it 10 years ago because he saw many people in positions of leadership who needed access to some different tools and skills to become truly good leaders.

Meet Our Speakers

Adam Touet

W Law

Adam graduated from the University of Saskatchewan College of Law in 2006. He articulated to David Eldon (Tom) Gauley at McDougall Gauley LLP and was called to the Bar in 2007. He is currently a partner at W Law LLP in Saskatoon and practices civil litigation, employment law and aboriginal law. Adam provides legal assistance to UMAAS Executive Board and Members.

Curtis Smith

Verbal Judo

Curtis grew up in a violent gang-oriented area of Los Angeles, then became a cowboy in Oregon before starting a 32-year career with Oregon State Parks. As a Ranger, Enforcement Officer, manager, and statewide operations trainer. He helped create a highly effective enforcement program and POST Ranger Academy. As a certified Verbal Judo and Defensive Tactics Instructor for 23 years, Curtis now in retirement works full-time for the Verbal Judo Institute training gov't agencies, private security, EMS, Health Care, Education, Business & Industry all over the US and Canada.

Keri Schwebius

Elevate Executive Coaching

Keri is the founder and President of Elevate Executive Coaching. She spent 20 years in public relations helping executive teams communicate with stakeholders. During this time her passion was employee communications making her a messenger, translator and advisor for leaders. This inevitably led her to the field of leadership—as a leader herself, then empowering others to become leaders.

Administrators on the Go Tour

Laser Tag at Merrill Dunes Action Tag - May 30, 2024

Merrill Dunes specializes in private paintball & laser-tag events that are fast paced, exciting, and leave your group of friends closer and better connected than when they arrived. Reasonably priced for both small and large groups, and with a sheltered safe zone that's close to the action, so non-combatants can hang-out and still be part of the fun. 10 minutes from Saskatoon, just off Valley Road.

Something new for Administrators to experience.

Come, join us and release those work-related stress!

REGISTRATION: $105

 Lunch will be provided.*
