President's Message

Ichance to occur. We were hit with a very early snow fall and now we are enjoying an extended mild period. Hopefully the warm weather continues until just before Christmas and then it can snow. Work in the municipal office has been very hectic as people rush to complete some projects prior to freeze up. Members of the Executive have been busy with various Committee projects of which I will be outlining.

Over the past number of years we have jointly undertaken a review of the LGA Program and its future with the University of Regina. This Program is vital to our Association and to all urban and rural municipalities in Saskatchewan. It is through this Program that future municipal administrative officials receive the basic knowledge and understanding required to function in the realm of municipal government. The LGA has received some minor revisions to course material and remains as a two year extension field of study. The exciting news is that we are trying to obtain credit status for the LGA Program. I would like to thank the University of Regina for considering the our Association this Director is responsible to ensure the elevation of the Local Government Authority Program into a credit studies program. The submission to have the LGA courses carry a 1.5 credit rating is an important step for the progression of this field of study. If the LGA Program were to receive credit status, present and future graduates of this Program could continue their education into other certificate and graduate programs. By having the LGA as a credit Program our members will have the ability to ladder into other fields of study to obtain their advanced certification.

A new UMAAS Promotional Brochure has been developed and will be distributed in the near future. The promotion of our Association and the career path of municipal administration must be promoted by our membership. In all walks of life there appears to be upcoming employee shortages to fill the positions of retiring individuals. The recruitment of bright young professionals has become the t would appear that winter came before fall had a battle cry for many associations and the competition will be very keen. With the assistance of current members and our SUMA partners we can help to ensure qualified administrators are available for all municipalities.

With the New Year arriving so will a new set of assessment figures as the 2005 base year roll over takes place. With this in mind workshops are being planned for January 18-27, 2005 at various locations throughout the Province. These workshops, assisted by SAMA, will cover a range of topics such as reading assessment field sheets, assessment service as well as the confirmation and audit process. In the last two weeks of February, 2005 a series of Board of Revision workshops will be held to assist with the assessment appeal process. As locations and agendas are solidified registration packages will be distributed.

Since our June Convention, this Executive has not had representation from a large sector of our membership. The position of Associate Director was not filled during the convention and therefore the seat has remained vacant. With in excess of 140 Associate Members registered with concerns of this portion of our membership are considered. If you are a current Associate Member please consider if this Executive position is an option for you to pursue. Any member of the Executive will be able to answer your questions and outline some of our current initiatives.

With 2005 being a very special year for our Association, SUMA and the Province of Saskatchewan, I hope all of our members will make a special effort to attend and represent your municipality at the many functions. Whether it be SUMA Convention, hometown centennial celebrations or the UMAAS Convention your participation will not go unnoticed. Lastly, with the festive season fast approaching I would like to wish everyone a wonderful and safe Christmas and all the best in 2005.

Executive Director's Editorial - Richard Dolezsar, RMA

November has been glorious and Christmas is just around the corner as another year draws to a close. The 2005 Membership application is on page 8 and an invoice your 2005 Membership fee is enclosed. Please for our Association, our Province and all of our communi- your fee. ties, as plans are underway all over Saskatchewan for Homecomings and Centennial celebrations.

2005 also marks UMAAS's 50th Anniversary and your Executive will be working overtime to make the 2005 inquiries should be made via: Conference one to commemorate the occasion.

Convention dates are June 7th to 10th and the location will be in Saskatoon at the Travelodge. How about a "Back to the Fifties" theme for some part of the Program.

I am anticipating that our Agenda will be revamped from last year to once again provide a Networking afternoon Thursday.

The 2005 Salary Guideline is on page 3 of the Newsletter and represents a 3% increase over 2004. The Salary Guideline can be a very useful tool in negotiations with your council. It is based on a consistent Province wide survey of the Urban Municipal Administration marketplace and then adjusted annually.

No doubt 2005 will prove to be a hectic and exciting year complete the membership application and forward it with

Our Executive office receives a number of inquiries regularly pertaining to certification issues. The certification process is handled by the Urban Board of Examiners and

Raising The Standard Of Service

By: Michele A. Schmidt, Administrator, Town of Leader, Director - Division No. 2

Levaluate the standards that we have set as individuals

I would like to focus on the less tangible qualifications which can certainly raise our own individual and professional standards. The first is diplomacy - the ability to deal pleasantly and tactfully with the general public. It seems that often we get confronted with important questions or get challenged on council policy at some awkward or very busy times. In spite of the pressure we must provide reasonable answers in a courteous manner, or if an answer is not immediately known, indicate that, along with the assurance of a future response.

The next two simple qualities are conscientiousness willingness to put the affairs of the municipality at the top of our lists and loyalty - to the municipality and council. Both of these are self-explanatory qualities and on occasion circumstances will dictate that sacrifices will be necessary to uphold

Another item is integrity - the ability to inspire confidence and trust. This is a quality which is established over time through the experience of our daily activities and interaction with our councils, ratepayers and those who require some measure of contact with our respective offices.

An item closely related and a builder of integrity is good

It is important from time to time to reflect on and rejudgement, the ability to make decisions and express opinions. Councils routinely rely on their administrators to assist them in the which enable us to be viewed as professionals. There are those decision making process by providing guidance and opinions which clearly defined qualities established through education and training which set a professional standard and enable us to fulfill our legislated duties and responsibilities.

The tale those decision and standard and enable us to fulfill our legislated duties and responsibilities.

The tale those decision and are formed with proper municipal interests in mind. The success and effectiveness of the resultant decision or policy can be a measure of the value of the judgement provided.

The final listed quality is responsibility - ability to work in an unsupervised environment. By the nature of our offices, this will occur automatically. Each of us may have a little different method of approaching tasks but all face similar deadlines which can only be met with the required effort.

It is evident that administrators and members of council possess these desired qualities and continue to improve upon them through career experience. However, it is incumbent upon us to conduct a self examination occasionally to make sure there is no lowering of the standard that each one of us chooses to build and maintain. Many of these qualities occur naturally within people while others are nurtured through the experiences and choices that life and work

Having regard for those previously stated qualities, I think it is important to be mindful of the need to participate in those little things which are not necessarily work related, but which help us build the aforementioned qualities and which offer rewards of equal

Administrator Profile: Michele A. Schmidt

When I completed my Grade 12 at Leader High School I Went out to seek employment. I obtained employment with the Toronto Dominion Bank in Lethbridge, Alberta and transferred to a branch in Medicine Hat in 1981. In 1985, my husband, Allen and I moved back to our hometown and opened a welding and machine shop.

I began my local government career in 1986 as a part time Office Clerk with the Town of Leader and then as the Assistant Administrator. I obtained my Junior Local Government Administration Certificate from the U of R and was issued my Urban and Rural "C" Certificate in 1988. In 1987, I accepted the position of Administrator with the R.M. of Newcombe No.

260 and the Village of Glidden. I received my Rural "A" Certificate in 2000. I returned to Leader in 2000 as the Administrator for the Town of Leader and also still hold the position of Administrator for the R.M. of Newcombe No.260.

I am a very community-minded individual and have been part of many organizations over the years. My favorite past time is curling, whether it be watching or participating.

I've lived in Leader and area almost my whole life and enjoy living in a small town in rural Saskatchewan. Our two children, Cody (16) and Niko (10), enjoy the free spirit that comes with living here and keep me busy with their numerous activities.

I was elected as Division 2 Director in 2003 for a two-year term.
